A generall confession vnto God daily to be said.

Most mercifull Lord God, and most tender and kind Father, vouchsafe I beseech thee to looke downe with thy Fatherly eyes of pitty vpon mee most vile and wicked sinner, which lie here prostrate in heart before the feete of thy bottomlesse mercy. O Father, in so much that I am no more worthy to bee called thy sonne: yet neuertheless, forasmuch as thou art the God and Father of all comfort, and againe, desirest not the death of a sinner, but like a true Samaritan, takest thought for my silly wounded soule: make me, I pray thée, by infunding the precious oyle of comfort into my wounds, joyfully to runne with the lost son, into the lappe of thine everlasting pitie. For, loe thou art my hope and trust, in whom I only repose my selfe, having in in thee full confidence and faith, and may say with a faithfull heart trusting in thy mercy: I beleeue in thee O God the Father, in thee O God the Sonne, and in thee O God the holy Ghost, three persons, and one true and euerlasting God, besides whom, I acknowledge none other God in Heauen aboue, or in the earth bebeneath. Yea and I poore sinner doe accuse my selfe vnto thée deare Father, that I haue sore and grieuously offended thy almighty goodnesse and maiesty, in the committing of my exceeding greeuous and manifolde sinnes and wickednesse, for I haue not kept the least of thy most godly and blessed commandements, like like as thy righteousnesse may require and Demand the same of mee: I have (I say) not honoured thée like my God, nor dread thée like my Lord, loued thée like my Father, trusted in thée like my Creator and my Defence.

of thine infinite mercy deere Lord, now and all the dayes of my life, and let mee haue part of thy abundant grace, so as I may change my sinfull life, and put off the olde man, with all his concupiscence, and also that I may die vnto the world, and that the world may be vnto mee a crosse, and so goe forth in a new life.

Strengthen

Gentlewomen.

Strengthen me, O Lord in a true humble heart, in perfect loue, hope, and trust in thée: Giue my soule grace, onely to delight, to reioyce, and repose my selfe in thée, and that I may vtterly renounce and forsake the vaine affiance of this world, so as thou maiest finde mé ready with the good seruant in the midnight

night of death, which shall suddenly steale vpon mee like a thiefe, ere I am aware. Bée thou to me at all time of need, O LORD, a tower of strength, a place of refuge, and a defensible GOD, namely against the face of the fiend, who like a roaring Lyon shall be then most ready to devoure mée: and against desperation, which then shall bee bushe to grieue mee. Let then thy comfort cleaue fast vnto mée, thy mercy kéepe me, and thy grace guide mé. Fetch thou againe, Lord God Father, that which thy puissant might hath shaped. Fetch thou a gaine, Lord God Sonne, that which thou hast so wisely gouerned and bought with thy precious blood. Take againe thou Lord God holy Ghost that which thou hast kept and preserued so lōngly in this region of sinne, and vale of misery, three persons and one very GOD vnto whom bee praise, and honour for euer. Amen, Gentlewomen.

When you arise pray.

Our first parents fell downe themselues from a most excellēt, high, and honourable state, into shame and misery, and into the deepe sea of all wickednes and miserie, but O Christ, thou putting forth thy hand, didst raise them vp againe, &c.

Men

uen so wee, except wee bee raised vp by thee, shall lie still for euer. O good Christ our most gracious Redeemer, as thou dost mercifully raise vp now this my body euen so I beseech thee raise vp my mind and heart, to the true knowledg and loue of thee, that my conuersa-tion may bee in heauen, where thou art, there to raigne with thee and thy holy Angels: grant this, O Father, for thy deare sonne Iesus Christ his sake, our onely Mediator and Aduocate.

When you apparell your selfe, pray.

O Christ, cloath mee with thine owne selfe that I may bee so farre from making prouision for the

the flesh to fulfil the lusts therof, that I may cleane put off all desires, and crucifie the flesh in mée. Wo vnto me a garment to kéepe me warme, and defend me from the cold of this world. If thou be absent (dear lord) al things are cold, weake and dead: but if thou bee with mée, al things are warm, frolly, and chéereful; Grant me therfore, that as I coupaſſe this my body with this garment: ſo thou ciouſly, both in this and al other things neceſſary,

When you are made ready to begin the day withall, pray.

O Almighty God and most merciful father, thou knowest and hast taught vs also to know that the weakenesse of man and woman is great, and that without thy grace they can not ther do, nor think any good thing. I distrusting altogether mine owne weakenesse, commend and offer my selfe, both soule and body into thy hāds. Haue mercy therefore vpon me, I humbly beseech thee, thy most weak, fraile and vnworthy childe: lighten my minde, that I may with pleasure looke vpon good things only. Inflame my my loue with the heate thereof, that I may carefully couet them, and at the last by thy gracious conducting, may happily attaine them, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

When you go forth of the doores, pray.

NOw must I walke among the snares of death, stretched out of Satan Sathan, and of his mi chieuous ministers in th world, carrying with m a friend to them both, an a foe to my selfe, euen th body of sinne, and sinfull flesh. Oh grand captain Christ, lead me, and guide me I beseech thée, defend me from the plagues and subtilties whereof I am in danger. Grant that I may take all things that happen

happen as I should doe: and setting mine eyes vpon thee onely, I may so goe on forward in thy wayes, as by nothing I bee hindred, but rather furthered, so that all my doings may tend to thy glory, the good of my brethren, & comfort of mine owne soule, for Iesus Christ his sake. Amen.

When

When you are going any iourney, pray.

This our life is a pilgrimage. From the Lord we came, and to the Lord we make our iourney: howbeit through dangerous and perilous waies, which our cruel enemies haue and doe prepare for vs, being now more more then starke blind, by reason of sinne. O Christ which art a most true Loadsman and guide; also most expert, faithfull and friendly, put thou out thine hand to helpe me; open mine eyes, that they beholding the vanities of this wicked world, may the better direct mée to shun them, and make thy high way knowne vnto mée mee, which thou diddest first enter into out of the corruptible life, and hast prepared the same for vs to immortality. Thou art the way, leade vs vnto the father by thy selfe, that all wee may bee one with him, as thou and he together bee one. And to that end, good Lord, direct my wayes to keepe thy Statutes, and guide my

my feete in the way of peace, to the glory of thy name, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Or pray thus.

MErciful father, thou art wont to send to thy servants and men of simple hearts, thine Angels to bee their keepers, and (as it were) guides, as as elder brothers to wait vpon thy weake children, so didest thou to young Tobias, to Iacob, to Abrahams seruant, to Iosua, &c. O gracious God, though we bee much vnlike vnto them, so many are our sinnes and offences, yet for thine owne goodnesse sake, send thine holy Angels to pitch their tents about vs, to hide vs,

vs, and defend vs from Sathan and his slaues, that so our goings beeing ordered by thee, our steps beeing directed in thy word, no danger may befall vs in our bodies or soules, either in our going out, or comming home. Grant this O Father, for thy deare Sons sake Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

When you are about to receiue your meate, pray thus.

This is a wonderfull mystery of thy worke (Maker and gouernor of the world) that thou doest sustain the liues of men & beasts with these meates. Surely this power is neither in the bread nor foode, but in thy thy will and word, by which word all things do liue, & haue their being. Againe, how great a thing is it that thou art able continually to giue sustenance to so many creatures. That is spoken of by the Prophet, in setting forth thy praises, All things looke vp to thee, and thou giuest them meate in due season, thou openest thy hand, & fillest with thy blessing euery liuing thing.

These doubtlesse are wõderfull workes of thine Almightinesse. I therefore hartily pray thee (O most liberall Lord, and faithfull father) that as thou by meate throughe thy word; doest minister

life to these our bodies, euen so by thē same word with thy grace, thou wouldst quickē our soules that both in soule and body wee may p!ease thee, till this our mortall carcases shall put on immortality, and we shall neede no more any further foode but thee only, which then wil be al in al. And so shal we bee satisfied w th thy fauour, and filled with thy blessing, through Iesus Christ. Amen.

After your meat, pray:

By corporall meates thou doest sustaine our corporall life daily; ready otherwaies to perish. The which surely, is a great worke: but yet this is much greater, more

more profitable, and more holy, that thy grace (O Jesus Christ) doth preserue vs from the death of the soule. For this life we ought much to thank thée, and because thou doest prolong it with thy good gifts, we most heartily praise thée. Howbeit, this life is but the way to eternall life, which wee beseech thee, for thy deaths

Deaths sake, that thou wilt giue vs, and so shall we not only giue thée (as wee may) thankes for a time of temporall things, but also eternall thankes for eternall things. O grant to vs these our desires, for thy mercies sake Amen.

When you enter into bed, pray.

The day now ended, men giue themselues to rest in the night; and so this life finished, we shall rest in death: nothing is more like this life then euery day, nothing more like to our graue, then our bed. O Lord, my keeper and body rest and sleepe. I now most entirely beseech thee, that as thou hast raised vp this my body from sleepe, so likewise thou wilt deliuer my mind from the sleepe of sinne, and from the darkenesse of this world: that I walking in the light of thy blessed Word, may onely do that is pleasant in thy sight, profitable to my neigh-

A prayer that the word of God may be of great force in vs.

WE are bound to render exceeding great great praise (O most mighty God) to thy glorious Maiesty, who doe euidently perceiue, that thou healest those which are broken in heart, exaltest them that be meeke, and bringest the vngodly euen vnto hell: there is no forceable to encounter with thy puissance, which ruleste the Starres, and calleste them forth by name,

A prayer vnto God the Sonne.

O Lord Iesu Christ, Sonne of the liuing God, yea, very God himselfe, begotten of God the Father from euerlasting, and continuing true and immortall God world without end: by thée all things were made, both in heauen and earth, by thée also they be cõserued and kept in a goodly order thou art the brightnesse of thy fathers glory; thou art the very image of his substance: in thée are hid all the treasures of wise-dome and knowledge, in thée dwelleth all fulnesse: by thée are we reconciled to God the Father, by thée wée are set at peace with him, through thy bloudshed vpon the crosse: by thee haue wee free accesse vnto the glorious throne of thy Father, and by thee (thorow faith) are we brought into this grace, wherein we stand and reioice in hope of the glorie of God. For the which we thanke thee & most humbly beseech thee to giue vs grace faithful-lie to beleeue in thee, and stedfastly to confesse thee to bee true God and man, earnestly acknowledging thee our alone Redeemer, Sauiour, Sanctifier, Reconciler, Intercessour, Mediatour, and Aduocate: that wee altogether depending on thee and thy merits, on thy blessed passion, precious death, and glorious resurrection, may ſtudy through thy grace, to order our life in true holineſſe and innocency, that at the day of iudgement, thou maieſt preſent vs, both body and ſoule vnto thy heauenly Father, and ſo for euer and euer, place vs in thy glorious Kingdome, Amen.

O Holy and blessed spirit, which being true & euerlasting God, with God the Father, and God the Sonne, proceeding from them both, full of maiesty and power, which also with thy heauenly breath, quickenest the

the mindes of them that before were dead through sinne, makest ioyfull the hearts of the faithfull pe= nitents, bringest into the way of truth all such as were in errour, comfortest the soules of them that righteousnesse, and plen= teously enrichest them name of Iesus Christ: purifie our hearts, wé beseéch thée, with the fier of thy loue, mortifie in vs whatsoeuer is not thine, renew and garnish our mindes with thy heauenly benefits and spiritual gifts, that they may be made thy temples leade vs into necessary truth, suffer vs not to bee caried about with diuers & strange strange doctrines, but alwaies remaine in that doctrin, wherof thou alone art the Author. Arme our soules against the subtilty assaults of crafty Satan, against the vain pleasures of the wicked world, and against the lewd lusts of the filthy flesh: that we being replenished with thy holy breath, may doe that onely which is acceptable

A praier to be said by them that are at the departure of any Christian friend.

O Lord God almighty, the Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost, three persons, and one onely God, the Lord of life, and the destroier of death, with whom to be, is life, & from whom whom to be is death: who as a loving Father, mercifull Redeemer; and friendly caller to repentance, hast now visited with the scourge of sickenes thy most sinfull sonne, yea, this thy spotted servant, to cause him to know himselfe, and to confesse his wickednesse, and so to come to thee at this thy calling to know thee thée, and onely to cry and call vpon thee for comfort.

Now, O thou Lord, whose property is euer to haue mercy, and freely to forgiue those that faithfully come vnto thée. We with heauy hearts, now humbly beséech thée looke downe from heauen with thine accustomed eyes of compassion vpon him.

Take

Cast behind his backe his innumerable and grieuous sinnes, throw them from him as farre as the East is from the West, yea, scrape the memory of them out of thy sight, quite forget them, and freely forgiue them him, as his only trust is in thee.

O Lord be thou vnto him at his time of nede a Tower of strength, a place of refuge, and a defensible God, to keepe, strengthen, and defend him from the danger of the Diuell, now readiest to disquiet and destroy him; against desperation, now busiest to grieue him against death, now likeliest to stirre him, and against hel, now gaping to deuoure him.

Gentlewomen.

O heauenly Father, aide thou now him, helpe him, and establish him in thy true faith and truth.

Comfort him now O Christ, and continue him in the knowledge of thee his only Sauiour, which art now (in his extremitie) readie to shew thy selfe to him (as a Sauiour) crucified on thy crosse to comfort him. Therefore now saue thou him from sin, deliuer thou him from eternall death; hale him from hell, embrace him, hide him in the holes of thy wounds, as thy deare sonne, and beare his manifold sins on thy backe. And, O holy Spirit, strengthen thou now his weake spirit against Sathan that standeth now nigh him to seduce him.

Say

Gentlewomen.

Say thou now to Satan; Away Satan, and command thy holy Angels now to aide him. Let thy comfort cleaue fast vnto him, thy mercy kéep him, and thy grace guide him, O Almighty God, the giuer of all health: and if it bée thy good will to lengthen his daies in this life, to spare him for a season, to ease him of his paines, and so to restore him to his former health, as thou diddest heretofore restore that penitent prince Hezechiah, that he thereby may once againe visit thy holy Temple, to thy honour and glory, and the commodity and comfort of thy Christians: yet Lord thy will be done, and not ours.

But if it be not so thy will, but that he (according to his daily desire) must now needes depart, and goe the way of all flesh: then thou O Lord, (in whose hands are the hearts of all flesh) arme
